Section 5
The Students

A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility or if the service to or for MSU is of a type that MSU would normally perform itself.

b) FERPA allows the institution to routinely release information defined as "directory information." The following student information is included in the definition: the student's name, addresses, telephone listings, campus e-mail address, date and place of birth, fields of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, enrollment status (including full-time, part-time, not enrolled), degrees (pending and received), awards or honors received and the most recent previous educational institution attended. When a student wants the directory information to remain confidential, an

5.3 SUBJECT: CODE OF CONDUCT

Date Amended: September 12, 2008
Date Amended: August 26, 2011
Date Amended: September 7, 2012

Any of the following actions, or the attempting, aiding, abetting, inciting, encouraging, or supporting of any of the following actions constitutes an offense for which students may be subject to disciplinary action ranging from warning to expulsion. (See Policy 6.6 University Judicial Board and University Appeals Board.) In all these cases, students shall have the right to appeal actions taken against them. Under some circumstances, a student may also be subject to action by law enforcement authorities; however, such action by law enforcement authorities will not forestall disciplinary action by the University.

5.4 SUBJECT: POLICY ON DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITIES

Date Amended: September 12, 2008

Murray State University guarantees to its students the right of free discussion and expression, peaceful demonstration, the right to petition, and peaceful assembly. However, students may not engage in activities which substantially disrupt or materially or significantly interfere with the educational, administrative, or operational activities of the University, including pedestrian and vehicular traffic. If individuals are engaged in disruptive activities, the President or his delegate will inform them to cease such activity at once. If the individuals fail to heed the official request, one or more of the following courses of action may be taken:

1. bring prompt disciplinary action against the individual(s);
2. impose interim suspension on the individual(s), provided due process consistent with the circumstances is afforded before the suspension by the President or his/her designee and a hearing before the University Judicial Board is granted within five (5) working days;
3. make application to the courts for injunctive relief;
4. request assistance from university and other appropriate law enforcement agencies; and/or
5. institute such other legal actions deemed necessary by the President to protect lives and property and to provide for the orderly operation of the University.

The residential colleges at Murray State University were developed to incorporate academic guidance, social functions and recreational facilities into the residential setting. The University seeks to make residential college life a meaningful part of student life through the employment of qualified faculty and staff, the encouragement of residential college self-government, the respect for individual privacy, and conscientious efforts to provide safe, high quality housing at a fair price.

The President of the University and the Vice President of Student Affairs, and their delegates, may implement reasonable policies and regulations governing residential college I in order to maintain security and educational a positive learning environment.

The residential colleges are equipped with ID card access systems and closed circuit security camera systems. There are cameras and ID card readers on each students entrance/exit to the residential college. All entrances may be locked 24 hours a day for the safety and security of the residents. The main entrance may remain unlocked certain hours of the day. The front desk staff of each residential college is responsible for checking identification of students entering the building and responding to student

5.11 SUBJECT: ANTIHAZING

Date Adopted: September 13, 1986
Date Amended: September 12, 2008
Reference: Minute Book: 36 Page: 17

Murray State University recognizes that student organizations exist for the purpose of extending opportunities for education, social interaction, leadership and skill development, and personal growth beyond the classroom. Therefore, the practice of hazing associate members, initiates, or members is antithetical to the purposes of registered student organizations at Murray State University and is strictly prohibited by the University and a violation of Chapter 164 of Kentucky Revised Statutes. In pertinent part, the Statute reads as follows:

[This Statute] prohibits any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers mental or physical health or involves the forced consumption of liquor or drugs for the purpose of initiation or affiliation with any organization . . . [In] the case of a student or faculty violator, [violation of this Statute shall result in] his suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate disciplinary action and, in the case of an organization which authorizes such conduct, [violation shall result in] rescission of permission for that organization to operate on campus property. Such penalties shall be in addition to any penalty pursuant to the penal law or any other chapter [of Kentucky Revised Statutes] to which a violator or organization may be subject.

Murray State University defines hazing as any on-campus or off-campus activity which results in mental or physical harassment, humiliation, degradation, ridicule, shock, endangerment, physical disfiguration, excessive fatigue, danger to health, or the involuntary consumption of alcohol or drugs.

This prohibition against hazing applies equally to student organizations, individual students, faculty, and staff members, visitors to the campus, and licensees and invitees on the campus. Anyone who witnesses an act of hazing should report it at once to Student Affairs.

Any student who participates in hazing as defined above has violated the Murray State University Code of Conduct and will be subject to disciplinary action as described in the Standards in Disciplinary Proceedings of the Student Life Policies. Any organization which authorizes or permits hazing to occur has violated the policy statement on Regulation of Student Groups and will be subject to group disciplinary action as outlined in that policy.

D. NIL Agreement Review.

Student-athletes are required to submit NIL agreements or offers to the Murray State University General Counsel or designee for review. Within three business days, the General Counsel will review the agreement and provide a written or electronic determination to the Department of Athletics, with a copy to the student-athlete, which identifies any conflicts with state law or University policy. Upon resolution of identified conflicts, the student-athlete may resubmit the agreement for review. If the University determines that the agreement is unacceptable due to conflicts with state law or university policy, the student-athlete may appeal to a committee comprised of the President of the University or designee, the Director of Athletics or designee and the Compliance Officer for the Department of Athletics. The decision of the committee shall be issued within thirty days of receipt of the appeal and such decision shall be final.
